Rubina Resort

Rules for dogs

Dogs are allowed on pitches and in some types of bungalows.
Camping pitches: maximum 2 dogs. **
Bungalows where they are allowed: maximum 1 dog. **
 Clients with more dogs and who have already come before, please ask for authorization before booking.

1. Dogs have to be on a leash throughout the campsite, also inside the plot and on the terrace of the bungalow. should never be left alone.

2. IT IS PROHIBITED FOR THE DOG TO DO THEIR NEEDS INSIDE THE CAMPING. However, should this happen, it should be picked up with a bag. We remind you that you can ask for excrement bags at Reception and they are distributed free of charge.
Outside the campsite there are several areas specially set up for the needs of the dog, with a garbage can to throw the bag. These areas are indicated on the camping map.

3. The dog should be prevented from barking, so as not to disturb the neighbors.

4. Dogs are prohibited from entering the playgrounds, the pool area and the buildings, including the toilets. We remind you that there are dog showers next to the access gate to the beach.

5. We remind our clients who stay in BUNGALOWS to leave them in the same clean conditions as they were when they arrived. The blankets are for the exclusive use of people. We kindly ask you to bring your own blanket from home for pets. Otherwise, 20 € will be deducted from the deposit for each dirty or hairy blanket.

6. All dog owners are required to take responsibility for any damages caused by their dog. Specifically, it is the owner's responsibility if his dog fights with another dog, and any damage that may then occur. We remind you that, according to the new law, you must have civil liability insurance and a vaccination card.

7. La RUBINA beach has an area for dogs, at the far end of the beach. This area is clearly delimited by signs indicating so. On the rest of the beach, dogs are prohibited and the local police can issue fines.

I accept all these rules and the responsibility
